

The same but different: Towards a theory of phonological equivalence and systematic phonetic variability

Professor Alice Turk, The University of Edinburgh

Speakers routinely produce the same word differently in different contexts. In this talk I discuss why this might be the case, as well as theory and evidence for how speakers plan speech to achieve contextually appropriate pronunciations.